

PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY TO THE PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY HOLY LAND COLLECTION

Third Sunday of Lent:

ARE YOU BEARING FRUIT THIS LENT?

The Gospel of Luke this week tells us of Jesus' ministry in Galilee, one of the loveliest and most fertile regions in the Holy Land. The agriculture there today gives us the images we find in Scripture: the vine, the grain, the orchards. Galilee is the region of farmers and shepherds, the simple folk who were not sophisticated like the urban people in Jerusalem. In Galilee today the separation wall being built by the Israeli government is dividing farmers from their land, destroying the peace and beauty of this region.

The region of Galilee is where Jesus did much of his preaching and healing, in such towns as Tiberias, Magdala, and his home base of Capernaum. In modern times, pilgrims came to Galilee to be able to visit the places where Jesus performed such miracles as multiplying the loaves and fishes and where He preached the Sermon on the Mount. These Holy Sites are preserved and maintained by the Franciscan Custody of the Holy Land, who receives financial support from the Good Friday Collection taken up in parishes worldwide every Holy Week.

did not deserve their suffering and death because they were greater sinners than we are. Neither do the Christians in the Holy Land today deserve their suffer-

The gospel this week tells us about judgment. In Luke 13, Jesus declares that the Galileans murdered by Pilate are no more guilty than those killed in a tragic accident at the tower at Siloam or indeed than anyone else living in Jerusalem. They ing as they struggle to meet the challenges of everyday life amid the background of war.

Jesus called the people of his time to repentance, and He is continuing to call each of us to a conversion of heart during Lent. We are all called to bear fruit, demonstrated in the love of God and the love of our neighbor. Judgment is indeed coming; we do not know when. What we do know is how to prepare. We must begin by tearing down the separation walls we have built in our lives that divide us from our neighbors and from those who are different from us. Then we can perform works of mercy for our neighbors by letting the word of God fertilize our hearts so that we will all bear good fruit. A true work of mercy this Lenten season would be to make a generous contribution on Good Friday to the Pontifical Good Friday Holy Land Collection to help the Franciscan Custody of the Holy Land preserve the Christian presence in the Holy Land and maintain the Holy Sites.
